FINE

I think about our leaders...

Starin' at the pie - fair as they can be - everybody gets a piece - a piece too small to see.
 Too much population ...

Some people say the future's bleak - nothing we can do - powerless, weak
 With all our computers / lasers, jets - telephones, TVs ...

Do we save our planet - peddle bombs - salesman of death - friends open arms of all our special interests - just one ...

Meanwhile, in the heavens - universes explode - systems slowly born - others erode
 There's Jupiter, there's Venus - Saturn & Mars ...
